NEW-YORK CITY. The days of registration in this city will be october 9, 17,

A reunion of the surviving members of Battery G, First New-York Light Artillery, will be held at Mexico, N. Y., on October 17.

Captain William Thompson, the new commander of the police of the Eighth Precinct, was sworn into office at Headquarters yesterday, and he exchanged his silver sergeant's shield for a gold one. L. X."-To vote on election day one must have lived one year in the State, four months in the county, and thirty days in the election district.

Ice skates are going to be cheap this winter, a several of the patents have just run out. The best violin strings are not, as might be supposed, produced from any part of the anatomy of a cat, but are made from the intestines of a young lamb. Dealers in stamps are expecting a rush in their business now that schools and colleges are open

One reason why shelled nuts can be sold so near the price of unshelled ones is that the shells when ground have a slight aromatic taste, and are valuable to adulterate ground spices.

On and after to-morrow the steamers Rhode Island and Massachusetts, of the Providence Line, will leave Pier No. 29, North River, Warren-st., at 5 p. m. daily, except Sundays, instead of 5:30 p. m., as at

The tide of travel has once again set toward New-York, and hotel men are once more smiling and cheer-

The scramble for the elevated trains at the downtown stations about 6 o'clock in the evening daily becomes more lively. Rarely do women manage to get a seat, and people are often kept standing at the stations between the Bridge and Twenty-third-st. until several trains have passed before they can even get standing room in the cars.

The Milk Exchange directors have fixed the price of milk at 3 cents a quart beginning October 1. Professor Alfred S. Bolwes, recently of the University of Pennsylvania, will deliver a course of twenty lectures before the law students of the University of the City of New-York, on "The Law of Banking, Trusts and Trustees," during this winter. During last week $29,652 95 was received for the use of Croton water, and $1,180 50 for 267 licenses issued by the Mayor's Marshal. Messrs. Coffin & Stanton offer and recommend as a desirable investment $100,000 Jersey City water bonds due 1913; $100,000 City of Minneapolis 4 per cent bonds, due 1917; $100,000 Helena and Red Mountain 6 per cent gold bonds, due 1937 guaranteed by the Northern Pacific Ra Iroad, of interest and a sinking fund to provide for principal at maturity. The funeral of James Moore took place yesterday the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Pifty-ninth-st. and Ninth-ave. The service was a solemn requiem mass. Father Elliott was the celebrant, assisted by Father McMilan as deacon and Father Hughes as sub-deacon. The burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

The noted De Graaf herd of Holstein-Friesian cattle will be sold at auction on Thursday at the American Horse Exchange by Peter C. Kellogg & Co., auction-The prizes for the "Roadsculler" races at Madison Square Garden, which will take place next week, aggregate $10,000 and among the entres are Bubear and East, the English champion scullers, and Wallace Teemer, and nearly every noted sculler except Hanlan, Kemp and Hosmer. There is still much to be done in preparation for the American Institute Fair, which will open on Wednes-day evening, but everything will be ready in time and there is every indication of an attractive exhibition.

BROOKLYN.

The remaining days of registration in Brooklyn will be October 9 and 23.

A meeting to be devoted to the Indian question will be held at Plymouth Church to-night. Addresses will be made by the Rev. Dr. C. W. Shelton General S. C. Armstrong and ex-Mayor Low.

Thirty-one applicants, two of them men, were examined for teachers' certificates by Assistant Superintendent Ward at the rooms of the Board of Education yesterday. The results will be announced this week. Bridge Counsellor Dykeman was in consultation with the officers of the Lighthouse Board yesterday, in regard to screening the electric lights of the East

The semi-annual change in the corps of house argeons at the Long Island Hospital will be made-morrow. Dr. Charles S. Fisher and Dr. A. Arbona will retire.

Permits for sixty-three new brick buildings were granted last week, to cost $415,550; seventy-three new frame structures, $189,760; thirty-seven alterations, $35,760; total, $641,070.

Frank G. Jones, the drum major of the 32d Regi-ent, has been missing from his home and place of siness for quarity a week. He is an undertaker at business for quarry a week. He is an underta No. 279 Court-st., and his creditors are many. No information has yet been received of Mary Heith, the two weeks' bride, age eighteen, who disappeared from her home in Walworthst, over a month ago. In the suit of Mrs. J. R. Cavileer against her husband for separation on the charge of abandonment, Judge Bartlett yesterday decided in favor of Captain

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

NEW-JERSEY James B. Caunce, bookkeeper of the Dolphin Flax

Mills, has returned all right, and he does not think there was reason to be concerned about his absence. A petition containing over a thousand names and asking for a local option election was received in Court by Judge Soudder, at New-Brunswick yesterday, and on October 20 he will appoint the date for the Town Clerk Ahler, of Union Hill, who has been sue pended from the Odd Fellows' Lodge, claims that his accounts are not short, and that there is merely a difference between himself and the lodge members who claim that he should pay in money which he says he has not received.

The post office and store of James Serven, at Pearl River, near Carlstadt, was entered by burglars yesterday, who blew open the safe and and stole $60 in stamps, a small sum of money and several articles of

JERSEY CITY.

Ex-Mayor Collins, of Jersey City, appeared before Justice Knapp yesterday, on behalf of the Morris Canal and Banking Company, to protest against the seport of the Tax Commissioners, fixing the arrearages property belonging to the company at a sum over $100,000. Judge Knapp ordered a review of the case and testimony will be taken upon a date to be fixed

Bernard Mack, who lives at Henderson and Fifth sts., was arrested yesterday on the request of the jewelry firm of Thomas Morton & Co., of No. 202 Broadway, New-York. The firm claims that it entrusted Mack with a quantity of jewelry, and that he failed to make proper returns. Justice Weed held

City Astorney Hudspeth yesterday argued an appeal in the Court of Common Pleas from a decision made by Justice Dayton, of the Second District Court, giving judgment in favor of Policeman Arthur E. Pryo, for $75, the amount claimed as salary for the month of December, 1887. Frye brought suit for his salary, and Judge Dayton decided in his favor. judgment. In case the city loses the case it will cost | prisoner. Nichols, the other "suspect," was dispersed $14,000. Judge Lippincott took the papers upon the appeal

AN INSURANCE COMPANY TO BE WOUND UP. Boston, Sept. 29 (Special) .- Mr. Merrill, the Insurince Commissioner, has sent a letter to the Attorney. General, complaining against the methods of the Massachusetts Relief Association, an assessment life, health and accident insurance concern, which has, after the lapse of thirty days, after claims varying from $3 to $500, and aggregating $5,403, have been established, failed to make payment. Consequently the company has been instructed not to issue any more policies or certificates. Commissioner Merritt says that the company's liabilities exceed its resources, as that it cannot, within a reasonable time, pay its accrued indebtedness in full. The acknowledged liabilities of said corporation, he said, amount to nearly $7,000. its membership his been constantly decreasing, numbering only 228 on August 18. The last assessment realized less than $600, and it undoubtedly would require the immediate levying and collection of from twelve to fifteen assessments to pay the already accrued indebtedness. There is no probability that the few re-maining members would make this number of paythat an application be made at once to the Supreme Judicial Court for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, and an order closing the business of the cor-poration. ments at once, and the Commissioner has requested
